

Troubleshooting — Database Connection Pool Exhaustion

Symptoms

Requests queue while waiting for a database connection. Latency increases and logs may show connection acquisition timeouts.

Diagnosis

Check active database connections, pool usage, slow queries, and whether connections are released after failed requests.

Common Fix

Do not immediately increase pool size. First determine whether connections are leaked or held by slow transactions.